Depression: What your score may mean

YOUR SCORE

Based on your answers to the mental health questionnaire, you might be experiencing depression. Depression is a lot more than feeling sad—it's a health disorder that can also be a risk factor for other medical conditions. Depression is treatable. Use this card to track your score and monitor your response to the treatment plan your provider has developed with you. Many mental health disorders improve within just six months of treatment.

	Please schedule a follow-up visit after: /	/
Recommendations:

